DEDICATION MASS SUNDAY

Kickoff Tonight For $200,000 Catholic School Campaign

An intensive drive to bring a $200,000 Catholic parochial school to Centerville begins here this week.

Pre-campaign dinner at the Washington Hi cafeteria tonight at 6:30 o'clock will give 250 workers and committeemen an advance look at plans, according to Father Vincent I. Breen, pastor of Holy Ghost Church, which is sponsoring the drive.

On Sunday, the campaign will officially begin with solemn high dedicatory mass in the church at 11 o'clock. The sermon will be given by Father Pearce Donovan, of Marin Catholic High School, and the famous Notre Dame Girls Choir from Belmont will sing.

Co-chairmen of the month-long drive are Superior Judge Allen G. Norris and A. D. Lewis Jr.

The "United Effort" committee is asking that each of Centerville's 1000 parishioners donate at least the equivalent of a month's take-home pay or income to the drive.

Backing the campaign, Archbishop John J. Mitty has sent a letter to local parishioners, reading, in part:

"I am very happy to know that you realize the need in your parish for a Catholic school for the religious instruction and Christian education of your children. At present there are about nine hundred children of Catholic parents in the pre-school and primary school age groups in your parish, and the number increases each year. A church is only a part of the physical facilities needed today in a growing Catholic community.

"It is with great pleasure, therefore, that I learn of your decision to embark upon a fund-raising program in order to provide a Catholic school for your children in the immediate future. Such a program has my heartiest endorsement and my prayers for the success of your efforts."

Architect's designs for the school show it located on church property on Main Street and fronting more than 200 feet back on Parish Avenue. It is planned to contain eight classrooms, a chapel, library, cafeteria and other rooms.

Cost, complete with furnishings, is estimated at $588 per pupil. The school will save local taxpayers $120,000 a year in public school costs, and non-Catholics therefeore are invited to take part in the drive, according to Father Breen.

Irvington Chamber Okehs $1,000,000 Shopping Center

Commercial rezoning for a $1,000,000 shopping center next to the Irvington Grammar School was recommended Tuesday night by the local chamber of commerce.

Bill Humpert, zoning committee chairman, said his group approves the proposal, made by Sunnyacres Development Co. Don Colvin, Sunnyacres executive, also appeared to ask for the change from present residential category.

The 14-acre piece recently was sold to Sunnyacres by Dr. E. M. Grimmer. It was turned down for business zoning several months ago when Irvington was rezoned. Now the chamber recommendation will be forwarded to the County Planning Commission.

Colvin and Jack Prouty also asked the chamber to prod the County Flood Control District into starting drainage work with Zone 6 bonds. They said nothing has been done to date.

Jack Parry pointed out that a month ago James Vivrette, engineer for the district, had rendered what at the time was considered by the chamber a satisfactory explanation of the delay.

However Colvin and Prouty's views prevailed, and Prouty, Max Stevenson and Humpert were directed to contact Supervisor Chester Stanley in an effort to determine how work could be speeded.

The sign committee reported two sites are in prospect for the town's south sign near Landing Road.

Judge E. A. Quaresma, billed as top speaker for the evening meeting, discussed citizen responsibility for jury duty.

Welder Crawls In Pipe, Catches Fire

A workman at the PG & E plant near Irvington was seriously burned Monday when he crawled into a 20-inch pipe and started to weld it.

Taken to Fairmont Hospital with severe burns over the upper part of his body was Ray Jetter, 30, of Concord. Fellow workmen said Jetter was inside the pipe when sparks ignited his clothing. They dragged him from the pipe and ripped off his clothes to extinguish the flames.

Law Will Keep Eye On Spooks

Witches and goblins better mind their brooms and magical powers this weekend.

Sheriff's Capt. R. E. Condon of the Township substation delivered this warning today as Halloween approached.

"Concentrated sheriffs' patrols augmented by sheriff's reserves will be abroad and watchful for vandalism and malicious mischief," Capt. Condon warned. "The county's anti-loitering curfew will be strictly enforced after 11 p.m. during the entire weekend."

Stores To Stay Open Fridays In Centerville

A number of Centerville stores will start staying open Friday nights, beginning this week, it is announced by Gordon Morris, president of the local Merchants' Association.

Members of the group have signified they will stay open until 9 p.m., Morris said, as a convenience to shoppers. If the program proves successful, Morris predicted all major downtown stores will have Friday night openings.

Stores which do not remain open for business are being asked to leave their lights on, Morris said.

Speed Hit At Centerville

The problem of speeding trucks and cars on Main Street will be tackled by two committees of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

This was decided Monday after Phil Willis reported seeing an unidentified schoolboy brushed by a speeding truck earlier in the day.

Willis suggested the chamber confer with Highway Patrol authorities to slow the speeders. At the urging of Joe Shepherd and Allan Walton, the parking-lot and safety committees were told to "get on it and report", by President Bill Short.

Winds Hit Lines, Black Out Area

Violent winds which whipped the Township early this week were blamed for an hour-long power blackout in Niles, Alvarado and part of Centerville on Sunday.

PG&E spokesmen said tree branches blew against a 12,000 volt line on Niles Canyon Road, causing a short circuit. The power failure was remedied at 10:38 a.m.

Candidates Busy For Nov. 2 Poll

With election day due November 2, candidates for election or re-election are taking advantage of meeting their constituents in this area.

Never in the history of Washington Township have so many candidates appeared locally seeking support. Candidates for United States Senator, Governor and Congressman have made personal appearances appealing for votes on election day.

Sole county fight of importance is that for the office of County Coroner, between the incumbent, Bernard Bungarz, and Dr. Edward M. Lundegaard. Other county fights as far as Washington Township is concerned were settled at the primary election.

One contest of especially local interest is that for Congress from this district. Incumbent George P. Miller is again seeking the office he has held since 1944, when he defeated Oakland's Albert Carter. His opponent is Jess Ritchie, who resides in East Oakland, and is head of a battery additive business.

Both candidates have made several local visits to the several towns throughout the Township.

On the local level, three incumbent directors of the Washington Township Hospital district are seeking re-election. They are Chairman L. S. Whitaker, and Directors Sam G. Scott and Allan Walton. They are opposed by Manuel Hidalgo of Decoto and Raymond Marsh of Hillview Crest.

The hospital district is scheduled to let bids in November for a $1,250,000 hospital on Santos Road, climaxing several years of planning and preparation.

Kuchel Pledge To Fight Flood Made Here

A pledge to help Washington Township solve its flood control problems was delivered in Centerville Friday by U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel.

Making his first local appearance since his appointment to the Senate two years ago by Governor Earl Warren, Kuchel declared to an audience at the Southern Pacific depot:

"I know about your flood-control problems here and I accept my responsibility to help you solve them."

He reminded supporters that he introduced legislation to curb floods on San Lorenzo Creek, and that action already has been taken there.

Sen. Kuchel pointed out that he has been a strong supporter of defense legislation sought by President Eisenhower, in contrast to the Congressional record of the man who seeks to unseat him next Tuesday.

"There you have the issue," the senator declared.

He was accompanied on his local visit by Mrs. Kuchel, by GOP National Committeewoman Marjorie Benedict, by his Alameda County Campaign Manager, Ernest M. Upshaw; and was greeted at the depot by a local delegation headed by Clifford Blackett of Glenmoor Gardens.

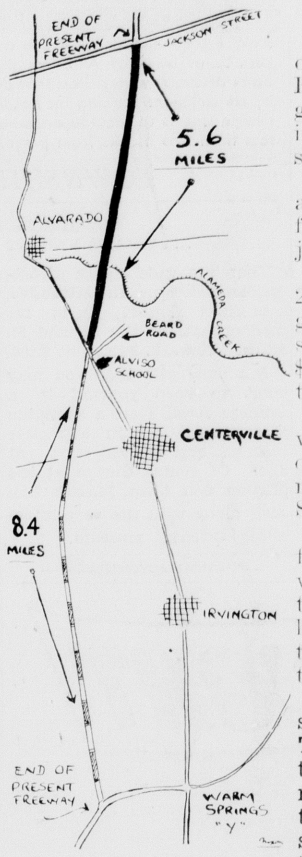
State Allots Huge Sum To Complete Work From Jackson Street to Alviso School

By STUART NIXON



ROUTE—Sketch shows (in solid black) 5.6-mile portion of Eastshore Freeway recommended for completion in State Highway budget. Broken line (below) shows portion remaining to be budgeted before. Oakland and San Jose are linked by superhighway through Washington Township.

In a decision expected to wield historic influence on Washington Township's development, the State Highway Commission this week announced it is budgeting $4,500,000 to complete nearly half the remaining link of the Eastshore Freeway through the Township.

From Sacramento, the commission said it is allocating the huge sum to construct 5.6 miles of freeway from Jackson Street south to Beard Road, just north of the Alviso School on Highway 17.

It was the third largest item in the State's $198,266,000 major roads budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1955. Out of Alameda County's total share — $14,005,000 — also came the biggest item: $7,015,000 to finish the Freeway from 10th Street to the Bay Bridge approaches in downtown Oakland.

Another $2,192,000 was earmarked for right-of-way purchases. Some of this will be used to buy land over which the remaining 8.4 miles of the Freeway will run, between Beard Road and the Warm Springs "Y", State engineers said.

Civic leaders here who waged a long fight for the funds greeted the news with jubilation. The Centerville Chamber of Commerce on Monday issued a letter thanking the commission for its action. Centerville hailed the allocation (1) as a growth "vitamin" for the Township, and (2) as a step toward getting heavy truck traffic off Highway 17 — the town's Main Street.

Significantly unmentioned in the State Commission's budget was the second Alameda Tube. When Township representatives journeyed to Sacramento to plead for the Freeway last August, a 40-man Alameda delegation was on hand to ask that the parallel tube be given priority on State funds. Township spokesmen said this might have jeopardized completion of the Freeway for several years.

Manuel Hidalgo, president of the Township Chamber of Commerce; Bill Short, president of the Centerville Chamber; Art Cotton, president of Newark's chamber; and Stuart Nixon, chairman of the Township Chamber's highway committee, were unanimous in praising the Commission decision.

They agreed also that they would be in Sacramento next summer pushing for the final 8.4 mile link to finish the job. All made the trip to Sacramento August 27 to lay the Township case before the Highway Commission.

There was no immediate indication of when the Jackson Road extension might be started. However, Commission Chairman Frank Durkee told newsmen in Sacramento that State law permits the Division of Highways to call for bids several months ahead of the time when the money is available from gas tax funds.

In San Francisco, G. P. Sinclair, district highway engineer, said designs for the 5.6-mile stretch are far enough along for him to estimate that bids can be called "late next summer."

"We already have an agreement on the route with the county," Sinclair added. "This tells us where we can put the interchanges."

The engineer said "some, but not all" rights-of-way have been bought for the 5.6-mile link ending on Highway 17. The balance will be purchased shortly, he predicted.

Chambers Meet Tomorrow To Talk Over Cityhood

Representatives of several Township community chambers of commerce will meet Friday night at the high school Visual Education Room to discuss cityhood for a combination of towns.

The meeting was called two weeks ago at the request of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, which is endorsing cityhood on a Township basis.

In deference to the meeting, the Niles chamber this week postponed decision on how to answer a letter from the Coro Foundation, asking "some expression" of how the group feels about a Township "city" survey the foundation has suggested.

The letter, from Coro's Kenneth Norris, advised the foundation will seek half or more of the estimated cost, $13,000 to $15,000, on November 1 from the Columbia Foundation. The balance, said Norris, presumably would be "matched" by chambers of commerce, the county and industries.

"A financial commitment is not necessary from you at this time," Norris told the Niles group, "but some idea of your attitude is desireable."

Chamber Pres. Howard Mitchell deferred an answer until the Niles "city" committee, headed by Frank Brown, returns from Friday's meeting.

Township Chamber Has Its Troubles

Efforts to revive flagging interest in the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce were made here Monday night.

President Manuel Hidalgo reported (1) all town chambers are delinquent in their $20-a-year dues, as of last July, and (2) that another night will be sought for monthly meetings, to obtain better attendance.

Hidalgo tried unsuccessfully to get Robert Furrer of Centerville to head a membership committee, but Furrer answered he "can't ask people to join an organization that isn't functioning."

NEW BANK—Shown above is architect's sketch of handsome building which will house Centerville branch of Bank of America. Plans and specifications will go out to bid this week, according to bank officials, who stated that the large structure is expected to cost approximately $175,000. Served by an adjacent parking lot holding 40 customers' cars, the building is to be completely modern in design and is to include an adjoining store area. Site is on Main Street south of Thornton Avenue, less than two blocks from present bank quarters. Loren C. Marriott is branch manager.

Newark School Wins $304,054

The Local Allocation Division of the California State Department of Finance awarded Newark School District the sum of $304,054.00 for the construction of the new Intermediate School on Thornton Avenue.

This word came yesterday from Supt. Jack MacGregor after a trip to Sacramento.

Construction is expected to begin within one week on the new building. Twelve classrooms, library, domestic science room, and an office will comprise the first portion of the plant with completion slated for September, 1955.

The George Bianchi Construction Company of San Jose was the low bidder for this portion of the plant, the bid being $21,683 below the estimated cost for the project.

The Board of Trustees has ordered immediate procedure for an additional 10 classrooms to be added to the first unit. It is hoped that these rooms will be available by September 1955 or soon thereafter.

This will provide a total of 22 classrooms to help ease the overcrowded conditions.

Recreation Petitions Out

Petitions asking for a Township-wide recreation district, similar to but excluding Newark's, are being circulated this week.

Ronald Lambert, chairman of a committee on the subject, distributed the petitions at a meeting here Wednesday night.

More than half the required 1360 signatures for the Recreation District already have been collected, the Committee Chairman Ronald Lambert reported today.

He said about 1300 signatures must be collected to place the proposed district on the ballot sometime in January

A 20-cent tax would raise $61,000 a year, Lambert went on, giving an operating budget of $27,770 and $33,000 for capital investment.

Crusade Collects $21,585 - 40% Of Goal

Washington Township's United Crusade is making commendable progress. Township Chairman Don DeForest reported to a workers' luncheon in the International Kitchen Tuesday.

DeForest said $21,585 had been collected, or 40 percent of the Township's goal. He declared Washington Township is topped only by Alameda, with 47 percent and Berkeley, with 43 percent.

Breakdown of contributions to date shows:

Commerce & Industry—$15,529.

Residential—$3136.

Education—$1720.

Small Business—$1200.

The residential campaign, under Mrs. Byrde Duffey, has reached 60 percent of its goal.

"The need is greater than ever this year," DeForest reminded volunteers.

Boy's Club Plea At Centerville

Centerville businessmen lent a sympathetic ear to the request, made Monday by Deputy Sheriff Jim Anderson, that they support a Boys Club for the Township.

Anderson said he wants some Centerville men to serve as directors and supervisors. Already on the directorate are Fred Rovers, Allan Walton, A. E. Alameda, Howard Mitchell, Dean Davenport and himself, Anderson said.

Nunes Seeking Newark Rec' Chief's Job

Mel Nunes, part-time recreation leader with the Newark Recreation district, last week applied for the position of recreation director.

Director Robert Lamp, has been named vice principal at Newark Elemantary school and must relinquish his recreation job.

Nunes said he had been a professional baseball player for 11 years and had worked for three years with the Hayward Area Recreation district.

District directors deferred a decision until a full board is in session since Mrs. Lillian Costa and Orvil Haynes were absent. However they instructed Nunes to begin preparing a winter program for the district and promised a decision at a special meeting on November 8.

The directors also approved black-topping and fencing of a play lot adjacent to the present Youth center. A bid of $670, submitted by San Jose Steel company, was accepted for the fencing.

"BROWNIE" REPORTS

By Don Brown, Orchard Park

Hi Ya Folks: As I told you, I would endeavor to give you a little autobiography each week, of one of the Orchard Park merchants. This week, meet Roger M. (Spotsout) Shaw. He was born in Iowa in 1914 and raised there until the age of twenty. At that age he came to the state of Oregon and operated a lady's Ready-to-Wear store for five years. In 1950, after having served three years in the Navy, he sold out the store, took a designer's course and entered the manufacturing business in California. This venture ended in a fire, after which Roger purchased a cleaning business in Alameda. He moved it to Orchard Park Shopping center recently, and now has one of the new places in that district located at 189 Towers Way, just off Thornton. Roger's Navy enlistment was during World War 2. His rating was Aviation Radar Technician First Class. He is married and the Father of two small boys. Roger is really a very nice guy and I am sure you will enjoy meeting him and getting better acquainted.

Sharpshooters: That terrific bombardment which sounds like a beachhead battle has finally been traced, by crafty sleuthing on the part of your reporter to John (Buckshot) Peters and Elmer (Birdshot) Nelson. Several days a week we have been awakened in the daybreak hours by the blasting of guns in the duck slough area. The two hunters finally opened the trunk of their car to show me the results. There lay three poor little ducks. Upon investigation it was found that neither of the ducks had a single shot in them. This was confirmed by the wives of both men. Also in the trunk was the golf bag of one of the hunters which was caked with mud. Now we know that both would be marksmen are enthusiastic golfers, so only one conclusion can be drawn as to the manner in which the ducks were captured. All indications are that, both of these guys caught those poor little ducks mired down in the mud and used golf clubs to kill them with. At least they cannot prove any different.

Visitors: Mrs. Dorothy Petersen, sister of your reporter, was a suprise visitor Thursday evening. She resides in Atascadero.

Welcome Home: The Joe Chandlers who resided at 153 Dutra Way, are expected home this Thursday. Joe has been employed for the last few months by a construction company at Irving, Texas. Glad to have you back with us again, folks.

GOOD DEED: Mrs. Ray Bean Fremont Avenue and Mrs. Jewell Hayes, Towers Way are taking instructions to form a Brownie Troop for Centerville. This will be the second troop here. It will be made up of girls from seven to nine years of age. The troop will be organized after November 18.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING: Friday, October 22, Mrs. Marie Graham, Dutra Way gave a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Eleanor Stoppe. As reported last week the stork is hovering over the neighborhood and is expected to make a landing in November. Mrs. Stoppe received many lovely gifts for the little stranger. Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners. Refreshments consisted of cake and coffee. The guests were Mmes Stoppe, G. Freeber F. Raush, H. Mohn, C. Betz, L. Hibner, L. Campbell, G. Dubuque, P. Peterson and the hostess, Marie Graham.

The Manuel Amarals, 185 Dutra, had a busy last week end. Friday's dinner guests were Hazel and Enos Amaral of Irvington. Saturday luncheon was served to Mrs. Vivian Pimentel and sons Stanley and Donnie, also Mrs. Dorothy Oliveira and children Gary and Beverly. A week-end guest was Mae Smith of Hayward and Frank Smith of Sunol.

Ambulance Rolls: Township Ambulance Service reports the following emergency trips for the last week: October 20, midnight, truck-and-car crash south of Irvington, one fatality. 12:52 A. M. a car-pole crash, Vargas Road and Highway 21, one serious injury. October 25, 10:00 A. M. industrial accident on Lloyd Road. A workman on a huge Gas line was severally burned when his clothing caught fire.

Appreciation: Thank you folks for your many complimentary remarks about our column. It is a pleasure to be able to report for you. Please

Supes Ban State Highway Shift

Alameda County's supervisors last week joined their Santa Clara County brethern in protesting the State's decision to abandon to the counties the present highway between Warm Springs and Milpitas.

The highway has been replaced by the Freeway. If the State abandonment is carried through, the two counties will become responsible for its upkeep.

Battery C Gets Army Inspection

Township National Guardsmen underwent their annual inspection by Sixth Army authorities last week, and preliminary reports indicated they passed with flying colors.

Major Jesse B. Schooley, assistant inspector general for the Sixth Army, accompanied by National Guard staff officers, conducted the intensive inspection, which is carried out each year to determine the efficiency of Guard units. He said he was impressed with the unit.

Battery C now has 75 members, according to Capt. Thomas C. Brackett of Centerville, commanding officer.

The guardsmen will spend a weekend at Wildcat Canyon, in the Berkeley Hills, on Saturday and Sunday, November 6 and 7. They will complete qualification firing with carbine and M-1 rifle, and will conduct a mock combat problem, Capt. Brackett said.

Native Sons Dedicate Norris School At Ceremony Here November 7

Dedicatory exercises will be held here November 7 for the Allen G. Norris School on Thornton Avenue.

The ceremonies will be under the direction of Washington Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West. Judge Norris, for whom the school is named, has been recording secretary of the parlor for more than a generation. He also was trustee of the Centerville School District prior to his elevation to the Superior bench last year.

The rites will attract highest State officers of the Native Sons, according to Albert A. Silveria, chairman of arrangements. Silveria is assisted by Tom Maloney, Maurice O'Brien, Wilbert Pine and Stuart Nixon.

Grand President David W. Stuart of the NSGW is scheduled to be on hand, as well as past grand president Philip C. Wilkins, Grand Vice-Presidents Robert E. Halsing and Larry J. LaFleur, and Grand Trustee Raymond Shone.

Assisting at the exercises will be Washington Parlor, under the presidency of Frank L. Rickenbacher; and the Centerville PTA, headed by Mrs. John Silva.

The ceremonies will start at 2 p.m., Silveria announces. They will feature music by the Washington Hi Band, directed by William E. Cook; and presentation of guests and Judge Norris by Tom Maloney, district school superintendent, as master of ceremonies.

'Secret' Map Reply Breeds Disbelief

County supervisors on Monday replied to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce query about why the town's zoning map wasn't published locally, but the reply failed to satisfy at least one chamber member.

Harold Schultz, clerk for the supervisors, explained in a letter that it takes a long time to have engravings of the maps made, and that the ordinance must be published no later than 15 days after its adoption by the Board.

For this reason, Schultz went on, the zoning which was adopted on September 21 was printed October 5 in a Hayward daily, instead of in the local paper, which publishes Thursdays. Last week only two out of 33 Centerville Chamber members said they had seen it.

Stuart Nixon, editor of the NEWS-REGISTER snorted his disbelief. "They've run them here before," he declared. "They were able to get the maps engraved in time then."

Niles Chamber Backs Hallow'n Fun, Feed

Cost of a Halloween weiner feed for town youngsters Saturday was underwritten by the Niles Chamber of Commerce this week.

On suggestion of John Brahmst and Frank Brown, $55 was allocated from the fund resulting from 1953's Essanay Days festival.

School Supt. E. Dixon Bristow explained this will allow the school to furnish 800 hotdogs and buns, which will be served by PTA members at the school cafeteria on Saturday night.

Bristow said plans are completed for a 700-youngster costume parade starting at 7 p.m. in front of the school, proceeding down Second Street to J, and doubling back to the school grounds for the weiners.

A bonfire on the school grounds will be supervised by teachers, Bristow added. Tickets given local pupils will insure out-of-town "free-loaders" won't get weiners, he said.

The party is to take the place of traditional "trick-or-treat" raids on Sunday, Bristow stressed.

At the suggestion of E. C. Parks, the school also will make available poster-paint for youngsters or school groups which want to decorate mer-Bristow said he will instruct children to make their own chants' windows downtown. arrangements with individual merchants for the decoration.

HAYWARD ART SHOW

Open to the public starting Sunday is the annual one-week Hayward Art Festival, according to Mrs. E. C. Grau of Niles, exhibitor. The show is at 21888 Foothill Boulevard, and hours are Sunday from noon to 9 p.m., and daily from 2 to 6 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9.

DON'T ADD MORE TAXES

Costing an added $74 million its first year, Proposition 4 would force new taxes. Counties would inevitably have to increase property taxes. New state taxes would be imperative. Take your choice - - new state property tax, higher income taxes, higher sales taxes, or a combination of ALL of THEM.

Through the years, Miss California has had one hairbreadth escape after another from the grasping clutches of the pension promoters • 'Way back in 1938 they tried to ply her with Ham and Eggs, and the year after that they offered her funny money—Thirty Dollars Every Thursday • Their schemes bore fruit in 1948 when the McLain Pension Scheme squeaked through at the polls by a narrow margin, and Miss California faced fiscal ruin until the voters mercifully saved her the following year by turning the promoters out of office • In 1950 the pension promoters tried to lure Miss California with the promise of vast gambling profits • In 1952 she fled from a Blackjack Scheme • This year Miss California is threatened once more with fiscal ruin at the hands of pension promoters, by Proposition No. 4 •

MARY SENN, FRANK RICKENBACHER NUPTIALS HELD IN CENTERVILLE

MR. AND MRS. FRANK RICKENBACHER

The altar of Holy Ghost Church in Centerville was decorated with white chrysanthemums and stock for the morning wedding of Mary Senn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Balz Senn of Centerville, and Frank Rickenbacher also of Centerville.

Mary wore a floor-length gown of white lace and tulle over satin, and a halo crown and finger-tip veil. She was attended by Heidi Flecklin of San Francisco as maid of honor who wore a cocktail length gown of aqua crystallete material, V-neck with fitted bodice and full skirt. Headpiece was a cap of matching material with small buds forming a tiara. She carried baby pink dahlias.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Laverne Preigo of Centerville and Katherine Tarantino of San Francisco who wore rose-colored gowns of same style as the maid of honor. The bride's mother wore a navy-blue crepe dress with white accessories and pink orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Josephine Rickenbacher, wore a teal-blue crepe dress with pink accessories and a white orchid.

Best man was William Santana of Centerville and ushers were Walter Senn, brother of the bride, and Anthony Avilla of Centerville.

There was a luncheon immediately following the ceremony at the Italian Village in Niles, for close friends and relatives. The reception was held at Swiss Park, in Newark and was attended by several hundred guests.

Mary is a graduate of local schools and St. Joseph's school of nursing. She is employed by Dr. F. H. McMahon in Irvington. Reds Unpopular In Austria, Student Informs Rotarians

"Three things you can't combine—to be honest, to be intelligent, and to be a Communist in Austria."

Thus Victor Strabberger, exchange student from the land of the waltz and the Habsburgs, summed up his observations of life next to the Iron Curtain before the Rotary Club last Thursday.

Strabberger said Austria's present woes stem in large measure from the fact that the Soviets have refused to sign a peace treaty for nearly 10 years. Vienna, the capital, is split into five sections, with French, British, U. S. and Russian troops occupying one apiece and a fifth rotating each month between the four armies.

"British and American troops are the most popular with us," the speaker declared. "We have no contact with the Russians."

When Ivan moved into Austria, he "liberated" machinery, furniture, and even hardware on the natives' homes, and sent them back to Moscow. The Reds also keep a firm grip on the Zistesdorf oil fields, whose 21,000,000 barrels of crude per year "could make Austria self-supporting," Strabberger said.

However the lighthearted Austrians don't fare so badly at that, he went on. Helped by the Marshall Plan, currency has been relatively stabilized, and living is improving.

To illustrate costs, he continued, a bricklayer may earn the equivalent of $100 a month, but a suit costs him $40, meat 50 cents a pound, and coffee $2.50. A man earning $150 a month must pay income taxes of $40.

Strabberger presented the local service organization with a tiny heraldic flag from his home Rotary Club at Wels. He was introduced by Gilbert Miller.

Special Polio Plea Nets $1873 Here

Washington Township contributed $1873.79 to the emergency March of Dimes, just concluded.

This report was submitted today to E. Dixon Bristow, Niles, chairman of the appeal, by Clarence A. Miner, county chairman.

Miner said $118,802 was raised throughout Alameda County. Of this sum, $3607 went for expenses, chiefly postage on appeal letters; and the balance was split three ways, with $38,398 going (1) to the March of Dimes polio prevention fund, (2) to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis research, and (3) to the Alameda County Chapter of the national foundation.

Child Welfare Group Holds Rummage Sale

Child Welfare Organization of Washington Township will hold a rummage sale November 4 and 5 in Walter Connolly's Television Store building across from the Bank of America in Centerville.

On Thursday, November 4, hours will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Friday, hours will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Donations of clothing, rugs, furniture, dishes, lamps, bric-a-brac and any useful items are asked. In Centerville contact Mrs. Betty Broun, Mrs. Merle Buehler or Mrs. Lee Williams; in Niles, Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, Mrs. Marston Dassel or Mrs. George Bonde. Items will be picked up, according to Mrs. Clyde Voorhees, publicity chairman.

This is the organization's money-making project for the year. All proceeds will stay in Washington Township and will benefit the needy. Layettes and clothing are purchased and the organization is on call at all times to answer the needs of any family, says Mrs. Allan Hirsch, president.

Light Renewal Poses Problem

Cost of reconditioning Christmas street lights had Centerville merchants at a loss this week whether to continue holiday night-lighting or to adopt some alternative.

Harry Weber, Chamber of Commerce committee chairman, hinted new State laws may force costly reconditioning of all the town's Yule lights. L. S. Williams said estimates show it may cost as much as $1000. Suggested Allan Walton:

"Maybe we should forget nights, and stick to daytime decoration. That's when people do business anyway." The issue is slated to be decided next week.

2 On Trial Here For Felonies

Two felony suspects are scheduled for preliminary hearings tomorrow before Judge E. A. Quaresma.

They are Millie Mayse, 37, of Roseville, charged with offering a bribe to Sheriff's Capt. R. E. Condon; and Raymond Purdy, 26, of San Francisco, implicated in the attempted robbery of the Irvington Hotel on October 9.

Pups Come To Life In Final Quarter, Score 13-0 Win

by Jerry Sanford

The Washington High Puppies pushed across two touchdowns in the final period, to break a scoreless tie for three quarters and post a 13-0 victory over James Lick lightweights from San Jose last Friday night.

The Pups scored their first TD early in the fourth when quarterback Johnny Adams cut around right end from 18 yards out. Stan Rebello tried to run the conversion over but was stopped short.

Midway in the same period Dennis Moffet blocked a James Lick punt and Washington took control of the game from there. The Pups fought their way to the two-yard line and Rebello went over for the final score of the game. Manuel Rangel added the extra point.

Later in the game Moffet blocked another punt on the 24 yard line. The Pups then drove to the 16 but were halted at that point.

The Comets took over on the 16 and on the first play moved all the way down to the Washington 37-yard line.

Ed Marin intercepted a Comet pass and it looked as though the Pups were once again on their way to a touchdown but the stubborn Comets forced them to punt.

The Comets took over, but this time it was Richard Vargas who intercepted a pass and the Pups hung onto the pigskin until time ran out.

The victory runs their season record to three wins against one loss which puts them in second place in the SCVAL.

Niles Canyon Seen As Site Of Public Park

Integration of the Niles Canyon area into the East Bay Regional Parks was proposed here last week by the Washington Township Historical Society.

Following an address by Robert Sibley, president of the Regional Parks board the Society voted to join with other groups in Eden and Washington Townships to study the annexation.

Sibley termed this area "one of the most beautiful in the world and of historical significance that should be preserved."

He stressed the urgency of acquiring hill and canyon land before it is developed into commercial uses. Sibley cited "the dream that some day a string of parks will stretch entirely around the Bay, including hiking and riding trails."

George C. Roeding Jr., society president, will name a committee to carry on the study.

Fletcher 'Great' In Defeat

Huskies Lose To Lick, 32-6, In Game Marred By Fumbles; Panthers Next

By JERRY SANFORD

Paced by half-back Larry Fisher and Darrell Danker, who scored two touchdowns apiece, the James Lick Comets trounced the crippled Washington Huskies, 32-6, in a fumble-strewn contest last Friday night.

The victory put the Comets in a tie for second place in the SCVAL with Santa Clara, each having two wins and one tie. Santa Clara plays host to the Huskies tomorrow.

Washington received the opening kickoff and brought the ball out to their own 15 yard line. On the first play little Eddie Fletcher broke through the Comet defense for 14 yards and a first down. On the next play the Huskies fumbled but recovered on the 16. After a series of downs in which they could get nowhere, the Huskies were forced to punt.

James Lick took over on the Washington 48 yard line and on the first play from scrimmage Fisher rambled all the way to paydirt for the first score of the game. Dick Krause converted to make it 7-0.

Halfback Al Rodrigues took the kickoff down to the James Lick 34. After the Huskies were penalized 15 yards, Rodrigues cut around left end for 10. Fletcher followed with a gain of 22. But the drive was stopped when Quarterback Tino Rangel fumbled on the next play and the Comets recovered.

The Comets were forced to punt after being halted three consecutive times. Washington took over on the two-yard line and Rangel fumbled again, Al Corbett recovering for James Lick. Comet Quarterback Hal Nakaji plowed over from one yard out for Lick's second TD. The conversion was missed, and the score was 13-0.

The Huskies took the kickoff and drove to the Comet 20-yard line on three consecutive first downs only to be stopped again. Lick took over at this point.

Nakaji then flipped a pass to Danker good for 80 yards and another TD. Krause failed to boot the extra point and the score stood at 19-0 at the end of the first half.

James Lick took the second half kickoff and had to punt after being pushed back deep in their own territory. The Huskies took possession of the ball on the mid-field stripe.

Rodrigues then tallied the Huskies' lone touchdown on the first play, as he galloped 40 yards after taking a 10-yard pass from Rangel. Rangel failed in the conversion attempt, passing low to end Craig Bellati.

Washington recovered when the Comets fumbled on the kickoff and drove to the 20-yard line only to be stopped by the tough San Josean defense. Lick took over on downs and after successive runs by Danker and Fisher for 20 and 18 yards, the Comets fumbled again and Rangel recovered for Washington. Fletcher then caught a Tino Rangel pass for 25 yards only to have Rangel fumble again on the next play.

Fisher tallied his second touchdown midway in the final period on a 35-yard run. Krause added the extra point to make the score 26-6.

The Huskies had to punt after taking the kickoff and being stopped on their own 30 yard line. With a minute remaining, James Lick took over on their 12 and scored in three swift thrusts. On the first play Danker rambled 63 yards down to the Husky 25. Fisher fought his way to the three and Danker went over on the next play to end the scoring. The conversion was blocked.

James Lick made a total of 380 yards to 197 for the Huskies. Fisher and Danker accounted for 305 of their team's 380. Danker was the leading ground-gainer, averaging 16 yards per carry in six tries. Fisher carried the pigskin nine times, averaging 13 yards per carry.

In other games played last Friday, Fremont scored a 13-6 win over Campbell. The two teams had tied each other in the past two years. Phil Cordero scored both Fremont touchdowns and booted the one conversion.

Fred Blanco also staged a fine exhibition, scoring both touchdowns and both conversions as Santa Clara blanked the Mountain View Eagles, 14-0. Blanco scored on a 70-yard run early in the first quarter and in the third quarter on a 60-yard run. Los Gatos drew a bye.

The Huskies travel to Santa Clara tomorrow night to face the strong Panthers who are led by Blanco and Clarence Nunes, 130-pound halfback. Both have been stars this season.

The diminutive Fletcher was outstanding Friday for the Orange-and-Black, plunging for gains against linemen nearly twice his size, and making a good share of the tackles for the host club.

Dave Koelsch and Merv Pinto were alert on defense, each recovering two Lick fumbles. Guard Conrad Preciado sat out the game with injuries, as did backs Ernie Soto, Ron Masuda and Jess Pineda.

Friday's score by quarters:

Washington	0	0	6	0	6

'C' Hoopsters Post 35-21 Win Over Fremont

The Washington "C" basketball team kept their league record unblemished as they rolled to their third consecutive victory, a 35-21 decision over Fremont, last Thursday.

Eddie Santos of Washington and Frank Sotello of Fremont tied for scoring honors, each having 10 points.

The "D's", just the opposite of the "C's", lost their third consecutive league game.

Fremont scored an easy 34-17 win, paced by Bud Bowling who hit for 10 points. The "D's", who have four players from last year, lack reserve strength and are having more than their share of trouble this season.

Mrs. M. Frades took Linda and Leslie to Hayward to visit their grandmother Saturday.

Congratulations! It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. James Semas of Mission San Jose, Leonard James born October 11. The Semas' have an older daughter. The Garrett Burts of Union Street are maternal grandparents.

Theresa Levada returned home Saturday after a visit of sereval days in San Francisco, with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hirsch Jr.

Frank Dias spent the weekend in Modesto and Fresno.

Congratulations: A girl born Oct. 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Del Fiorentino of Santa Clara, makes Mrs. Tiny Fiorentino of Centerville a grandmother again.

Mrs. Alfred Hirsch entertained her family Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hirst of Carmel, Miss Sue Hirst from Stanford University, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Anderson of Centerville.

Congratulations! It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Duaarte, Route 1, Box 119, born Oct. 10, named James Ray.

The announcement of their daughter Anita's, engagement to Stanley Machado of Newark, was made recently by our well known Frank and Josie Delgado. Stanley is a Korean war veteran and was recently released from the service. He is employed at Westvaco, Newark. Anita is working at Craig Rest Home. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Edward Meyers and children of San Jose visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Castelhano on Tuesday evening.

Don't forget the PTA whist October 31.

Our sympathy to the family of Domingo Souza of San Leandro who passed away October 17.

Best wishes to the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fernandez. Shirley was a beautiful bride. It was a lovely wedding.

A no-hostess surprise birthday party was given last week at Banchero's in Hayward for Mrs. Lew Irwin. Those helping her celebrate were: her daughter, Mrs. Eileen Milatz; her sister, Mrs. Grace Nevels; her mother, Mrs. Amanda Mewhinney; Mrs. Virginia Adams; Mrs. Belle Sylvia; Mrs. Eula Geer; Mrs. Clara Castro; Mrs. Mary Churka; Mrs. Irma Jo Nickels; Mrs. Betty Hammers; Mrs. Corrine Hetrick; Mrs. Ann Rose and Mrs. Aline Hass. Those unable to attend but joining the others in a gift of a wristwatch for Betty, were Mrs. Prudence Henry and Mrs. Lorelei Mozzetti. Have many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. T. A. Geer of Newark was surprised by a farewell gift by her fellow workers at Irwin's. She is leaving to make her home in Oregon. Good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, who opened the nice-looking "Bottle-Shop," are living in Irvington in the Peterson Tract, Mission View.

Notes at random: The fire department was called out for a car fire on Roberts Avenue; the Postoffice is being painted; Connolly's Appliance Store has been redecorated and enlarged, and it looks grand; the hamburger stand is almost finished; a new building is going up on Mission Street next to Mission Way Grocery; Irvington soon won't know itself.

Our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Sam Stivers who passed away Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seguine spent the weekend at the Oakland home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jacobsen and attended their club meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Devore of Landing Rd. spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richard in Vallejo.

Mrs. Victor Wykoff of Piedmont visited with relatives and friends in Irvington Monday.

To Enroll At T.I.

Leland A. Silva, 371 Blacow Road, Centerville, will enroll in the Navy's Instructor Training Course at Treasure Island, California, for the first two weeks of November.

Irvington OK's School Bonds, State Aid

Irvingon School District voters overwhelmingly passed a $185,000 bond election and state aid request for $1,250,000 in an election Wednesday.

Voters okayed the bonds, 261 to 54, a margin in excess of the two-thirds majority needed.

On the state loan issue, vote was 253 to 63 in favor.

Supt. Gus Robertson said money probably will be used to build three new grammar schools. The district now has one.

First school probably will be built, he said, in vicinity of the Conway & Culligan subdivision tract one mile south of Irvington.

Tract plans call for erection of 2,000 homes soon.

Robertson has warned that more than 5,000 Irvington homes are on subdividers' drawing boards, meaning half again that many pupils for the district.

Other schools possibly would be located near the new high school on Cook's Road, and north of town, near the Stanley Davis tract, Robertson guessed.

Central Chevrolet Showing 1955 Models In Centerville

Pronounced mechanical advance plus new riding comfort and a complete re-styling of bodies give Chevrolet for 1955 its most spectacular model announcement, according to a statement today by Romeo Brunelli, owner of Central Chevrolet, Centerville.

"No major part of the car has been overlooked in the broadscale improvement program," Brunelli declared. "Driving ease and riding comfort benefit along with the creation of fresh automotive design. The accomplishment has been possible only because of a thorough job of product re-engineering and the tremendous new plant facilities Chevrolet adds this year."

The 1955 models will go on display at Central Chevrolet and at dealer showrooms nationally today, October 28. From an extraordinarily long list of new features the public will see at that time, these are particularly outstanding:

1—First automobiles in the low-price field to reflect the "dream car" influence of the General Motors Motoramas. All roofs have been visibly lowered with a corresponding reduction in hood and belt lines to accentuate a longer, fleeter appearance. Overall, sedans have been lowered two and one-half inches, station wagons as much as six. At the same time, passenger room has been increased.

2—First V-8 engine offered on a Chevrolet in 35 years. Profiting by recent reasearch and combustion and manufacturing techniques, the V8 is unveiled as "far more precisely built and efficient in performance than others in its class." Named the "Turbo-Fire V8," the V8 delivers 162 horsepower.

3—Higher horsepower and new quietness and smoothness in two "Blue Flame" sixes. Engines are of the traditional valve-in-head design which is the last few years has won virtually 100 per cent acceptance by other makes. A 123-horsepower engine is available with the manual gearshift. The six built exclusively for the Powerglide automatic transmission now develops 136 horsepower.

4—Front and rear suspension revamped. Added riding comfort and road-ability, Chevrolet states, are assured by vastly improved suspensions. At the front, a modern version of the ball-joint design aids car hanling and steering as well as comfort. One improvement new to the industry is a control arm geometry than cancels out most of the objectionable "dive" that often accompanies brake stops. Rear spring mounts are outside the frame, after the fashion of the Chevrolet Corvette.

5—Increased safety through greater visibility. Every car window of safety plate glass—front, rear and side—is larger in 1955 Chevrolet bodies. The gain is due largely to the extension of glass over areas that have been "blind spots" since the early days of the automobile. Increase in visibility thru the sweep-sight windshield alone is 19 per cent. As an other example of the improvement, glass area in four-door sedans totals an amazing 24.5 square feet.

6—Optional overdrive. An overdrive installation will be offered for the first time.

LOST LICENSES

Three local motorists received suspension of their drivers' licenses last week for traffic violations, according to the State Department of Motor Vehicles. Mardy S. Costa, Newark, and John C. Silva, Niles, were charged with reckless driving; and Andrew Sanchez Jr., Decoto, with drunken driving.

New Pontiacs On Display In Niles Tomorrow At DiGiulio

Pontiac's 1955 model cars will feature a new Strato-Streak V-8 engine, it was announced today by Louis and Caesar DiGiulio, owners of the DiGiulio Pontiac, Niles.

The powerful 180-horsepower engine has overhead valves, a 8:1 compression ratio and 287.2 cubic inches displacement.

In announcing the basically advanced engine, the DiGiulios said, "After extensive research and testing, Pontiac offers our new Strato-Streak V-8 engine which has all the extra power and response that modern Americans desire plus the reliable features that have made Pontiac engine famous through the years. Tests indicate it will be the most economical V-8 engine on the market.

"The 1955 Pontiac power plant incorporates many engine improvements completely new to the automobile buying public," the local men stated. "Over 3,000,000 miles have been run on experimental installations to road test the new features."

The high compression ratio and large displacement in the Pontiac V-8 develop extra power at traffic speeds. "The high torque of the Strato-Streak at low speeds will thrill today's drivers," the DiGiulios said. "It insures smooth, powerful response in traffic ranges where safety often demands split reactions on the part of the car and the driver."

According to the DiGiulios:

The 1955 styling of the new Pontiac sets a trend for future car design. Capturing the best stream lines and color combinations, the designers of the 1955 Pontiac have reached new heights in eye-catching beauty as well as comfort and safety.

The first glance at the Pontiac reveals its low, rakish silhouette. The modern, imposing front-end low hood, panoramic windshield, long rear deck and rear fender fins are outstanding features of its fleet appearance.

An exciting innovation in Pontiac's exterior colors this year is its "Vogue" two-toning. The roof color extends down to the midle of the front door and sweeps back across the fenders and rear deck. The new color division, accentuating the streamlined, road-hugging look of the 1955 Pontiac, is adaptable to the complete line of lustrous new colors.

The front bumpers have bright, massive dual impact bars and a connecting grill bar. The radiator grille has the streamlined appearance of a jet plane air scoop. Above each headlight is a futuristic air crescent. Twin silver streaks, so popular on Potiac's "dream car," the Bonneville Special, sweep back from the radiator grille on each side of the low hood. A flying-wing hood ornament key-notes the modern design of the car.

Below the panoramic windshield, a cowl-wide air intake insures a continuous, fume-free supply of outside air to the passenger compartment. The greatly increased glass area (26 per cent) around the passenger compartment gives full circle vision to the car occupants.

The silver streak motif is continued with chrome streaks along the top of each of the rear fender fins terminating at massive tail lamps. Dual bumper impact bars and the graceful wing-and-circle emblem on the trunk lid give new beauty and distinction to the 1955 Pontiac's rear look.

The low hood line and increased glass area allows the driver to see all four fenders, an aid in parking and maneuvering the car.

Inside the car there is even more evidence of high fashion in Pontiac's design. Modern fabrics and color-keyed styling, glare-proof instruments, accessible controls, and many seats give the passenger a sense of being in a new world of safety, comfort and beauty.

A dominant feature of the interior is the graceful new instrument panel, which follows the lines of the panoramic windshield and joins the molding of the front doors. With the accent on safety, the top of the instrument panel is sloped to form a hooded, glare-dampening surface. The lower portion of the panel extends outward placing the instruments at a 90 degree angle to the driver's line of vision, reducing glare.

1955 Pontiac Star Chief Custom Catalina

"Vogue" two-toning and new panoramic body styling enhance the long sleek look of the all new 1955 Pontiac Star Chief Custom Catalina. Powered with Pontiac's new 180 h.p. Strato-Streak V-8 overhead valve engine, the very popular Catalina is offered in Star Chief Custom and Chieftain 870 models.

CAROLLING AROUND NEWARK

Jeanne & Gene Carroll
Newark 3-3564

What is the poorest way to start the day? By getting up early in the yawn-ing, we say. Maybe dat's what gets things so confusing at times.

It looks like Washington Township has come of age. Yep, there is votes in this here bailiwick now so we find candidates, Democratic and Republican, appearing at the High School last week.

We hear that Congressman George Miller visited in Newark at Mrs. Roy Jensen's home on Cherry for an informal meeting with a gathering of ladies.

Newark can be proud of its Fire Department and items like this are why . . . P. E. VanPelt of Oakdale was low bidder among four firms for a 1,000-gallon pumper for the NFD. The bid was $14,106. New fire truck, new addition to fire station, Commissioners seeking a site for another station, paid firemen, man on duty 24 hours a day . . . no tax increase . . . lower fire insurance rates . . . music to our ears!

Halloween will be celebrated this Saturday and as usual the little ones are getting excited at the prospect of "trick or treating." Plans for Saturday call for the parade and parties at the school starting at 2 p.m. for youngsters, pre-school through 4th grade. At 6 p.m. at the school for 5,6,7 and 8th graders. The Teen Club will have a dance at the Community Center starting at 8, to round out the planned activities.

The newly formed 4-H club elected officers last week: Jill Kettman, president; Rae Latham, vice president; Kay Hersey, secretary and treasurer; Gwen Boggs, publicity chairman; Alice Marks and Joe Geer, game leaders; and Bernice Fragulia, song leader. The club will meet the second Tuesday of every month. The club will meet on November 9 at 6 p.m. in the Community Center. Following the meeting the members will be taken to the San Leandro Roller Rink for an evening of skating. Lon Rodelander is their advisor and community leader and other adult leaders include: Mrs. Lillian Kettman, Mrs. Pauline Dunlap.

What do you think of a rainwear exchange for school children? The suggestion will be hashed over at the P.T.A. meeting next Tuesday. The lady who suggested it for Newark says it's an annual affair in Alameda every fall . . . zounds like it has zillions of money-saving possibilities by cooperation between families whose kids outgrow rainclothes and families whose kids need 'em.

Things were humming around the Gene Boyce home last Saturday when Kenneth Boyce celebrated his sixth birthday with a flock of young friends enjoying games and refreshments. Guests were: Frank Lynn and Michael Gygax, Kenneth Buschke, Michael O'Neill, Janet Haynes, John McConnell, Dean Witcraft, Alfred Parish, Nina Sue Bradley, Gloria Jean Miller, Michael Krueger, Larry, Linda and Donna Phillips and his younger brother Gene.

It's a boy! Ben and Phyllis Meyers happily welcomed their second son, Joseph Bailey, into their family October 21 at Livermore Hospital. His weight was slightly over 9 lbs. His big sister is Shirley and his brother is Benny Meyers.

On Monday, November 1, Newark school children will carry home bags for their parents to fill with old clothes, rags, etc. as the annual P.T.A. salvage drive gets underway. The drive will last through Friday and you can have as many bags as you wish . . . the more salvage, the more funds can be raised. Proceeds will be split evenly between the classrooms and the P.T.A., we understand. Mrs. Louis Serafina, salvage drive chairman, tells us that the Newark P.T.A. must pay for every bag and she would like to see them all returned full or empty . . . but returned.

The Cub Scout committeemen and Den Mothers will meet Thursday, November 4 at the home of Mrs. Maurine Thiessen.

Writing the above notation called to mind a conversation we had with Gary Armstrong, our Cubmaster. He said they have three cute black-&-white Toy Australian Shepherd and Cocker Spaniel pups and mother for which he would like to find a happy home. If you would like one (the pups are 3 months old) call Newark 3-2020.

We hear that Mary Montero was in San Jose Hospital for a "surgical visit." We hope her 'parting' was painless and that she is feeling better now.

Lois Bimemiller was ten years old on the 19th and she fouled up her party plans by getting sick on the big day. Her recovery was quick enough to take advantage of her mother's offer of a show and after-show treat last Friday. So Mrs. Ed Bimemiller, Lois, Nancy Barengredt and Margaret Kelly enjoyed her birthday belatedly but happily.

Judy Ann De La Cruz celebrated her 8th birthday with a back-yard party. Guests included: Marilyn and Connie Rust, Pamela and Mark Ezra, Cynthia, Mike, Ronnie and Suzanne Montona, Billie Jo and Dimmie Young, Ray and Patti Tanner and Janie Hartz.

Good luck to Robert McCord who is recuperating from a serious operation in Los Angeles.

Best wishes to Ivan Cole who is recuperating after a few days in the hospital. Rest and easy living for awhile is a great healer, Ivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis and Janice enjoyed a weekend visit with friends in Winters.

Movies . . . you like 'um . . . tomorrow night at the Community Center see the "Tanks

We hear that the Orangeburg employees enjoyed a dinner-dance at the PG & E substation last Saturday night.

The Dime-a-Dip Dinner and Annual Bazaar given by the Women's Societies of the Presbyterian Church will be held at Calvin Hall on Friday, November 12. Serving begins at 5:30 p.m. according to Mrs. Vinna Pool and Mrs. Annie Kious, co-chairmen. Mrs. Evangeline Muller will be hostess and Mrs. Maude Grace, will be in charge of reservations. Call Newark 3-3722.

The eighth-grade parents had an orientation meeting with Teachers Mrs. Gladys Fahrner and Melvin Binkley last night at the school. The meeting is an annual affair to acquaint the parents with the plans and changes to be made before high school. Jack MacGregor, District Superintendent, and Mrs. Dulcie Blume, general supervisor of curriculum in Alameda County schools were guests.

Rodney Souza, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Souza celebrated his 12th birthday recently with a party. Enjoying the games and refreshments were: Mary Lou Kennedy, Mary McCoy, Adelia Paz, Linda Yowell, Martha O'Bryant, Ronald Sproles, Norman Vierra, Gary Sproles, Russell Pierce and Janet Springer.

We just discovered the most used letter in the alphabet—it's the one that's broken on the typewriter.

Gene and Nadine Boyce celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary last Saturday dining and dancing in Santa Cruz with Bill and Lillian Short.

Pink booties and dainty dresses are in order for Don and Joe Ann De Camera as they fuss over their first arrival. A sweet six-pound baby girl, Deborah Ann, arrived for them on Thursday, October 21 at San Jose Hospital.

Happy anniversary time for Curtis and Marilyn Potter came on Tuesday the 26th—it was their second.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milne of Irvington gave a farewell party in their home last Friday evening for Merle and Dorothy Witcraft of Newark. Witcraft, who is a process supervisor for Westvaco, has been transferred and promoted to the plant in Modesto. The Witcrafts received a philodendron plant as a remembrance gift from their friends. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. George Worley, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cownie, Mr. and Mrs. John Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deutschman, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Hagquist and Ben Meyers.

Small world department— Ruth Lambert flew over to Germany to be with her hubby, Pfc. John Lambert, who is stationed in Augsburg, and right off the bat she met a former Newarkite, Herta Tack, who was employed at West-

Tack has spent the past two years in Germany and will return stateside in November. She is a civilian employee of the government. Pfc. Wilbert J. Martin is still in Munich too—5th Inf. Armor Rec—so the three could have a Newark reunion for fair.

Shortie birthday greetings dot and dash to Kitty Sammon— who celebrated on the 16th, we hear . . . to Charles "Chick" Correia who was surprised with a party to mark his 15th last Wednesday . . . to Mary Haynes as she past her special day on Tuesday . . . to Linda Homer as she ice creamed and caked on her sixth birthday October 26 . . . to Marta McGinnis, four years old on Tuesday and ready for another party . . . to Eldon Taylor as he checked off another year last Monday . . . to Hilda and Joyce Vierra as they double up on the birthday celebrations this Sunday so we'll double up the greetings. . .

Betty Querner was home last week-end after several weeks in the hospital since she was stricken with polio, and happiness is mirrored on the faces of her Harry and the children who are all so glad.

We are limp, breathless and faint after the great 49er-Lion game and while we gain strength to go through another Sunday . . . so-long.

GLENMOOR GARDEN NEWS

By SARAH JANE PHILLIPS

Goblins and ghosts of Glenmoor Gardens will have their dress rehearsal Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when all spooks will leave Glenmoor Gardens Park for a parade around the town. All those who wish to take part in the parade must fill out entry blanks signed by their parents and return them to the park office by Friday afternoon. These forms are available at the park office after 3:00.

First and second prizes and honorable mention for the funniest and most unique will be awarded in each of three divisions: Floats, decorated bicycles, and costumes. Glen Camper, head of the Gardens Recreation Department, sponsors of the parade, asks that all participants meet at the playground at 1:30. The route of the parade is down Glenmoor Drive to Norris Road, down Norris to Blacow, two blocks on Blacow, and up Mattos to the park. Prizes will be awarded at the park on the basis of the decision of the judges: Frank Phillips, Thomas Maloney, and John Courtner. Free ice cream will be served to all children who take part in the competition.

Music will be provided by the Centerville Grammar School Band, under the direction of Miss Rosalind Rogers.

The Maurice Enos' just don't let anyone else's dogs win the second place ribbons. Those belong to Tyio, their prize Samoyed. Tyio went to Sacramento Sunday and took away another red ribbon.

A surprise house-warming delighted the Arnold Souzas, Glenview Drive, Saturday, Oct. 16. Those who came to dance in their garage were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Souza, Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duart, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Gorenger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Havlicek, San Leandro; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Amaral, Hayward; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Parish, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Guardanapo, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rocha from Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Porge, Elliott St., have an annual tradition. After the California-U. S. C. game each year they meet for dinner at the Wesley Folkman's in Lafayette and one of them weeps. This is a divided household. Buckets wouldn't hold Mrs. Borge's tears last Saturday—Cal. 27; U.S.C., 29. They'll have a chance to regain their good spirits this next week, though. On Saturday they plan to join old friends at the home of Al Beach in Berkeley and tease the Halloween spirits.

Week before last Emery Peters, Don Barrett, and Ross Miller of Hayward went hunting, with guns, that is, for a buck. On the way something happened. Maybe it was anticipation, maybe it was a tendency to see double. Anyway, two shapes loomed ahead on the road. The driver swerved, missed one shape but ran smack into the other. Thud. The men returned home with a smashed radiator, a dent in the fender and one in the roof of the car. The thing was a doe. It would be a doe. The three men tried again last weekend, but couldn't even hit a deer with the car this time.

Tuesday, October 19 after the Homeowner's meeting, a group of Glenmoorites gathered at the Peter Tauschek home on Mattos Drive to hash over the pros and cons of the newly proposed Service District. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tauschek, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. George Horejsi, Mrs. Rose Siatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kvarnstrom.

Bill and Helen Buell of Sterling Drive entertained their nephew, Billy Heintz, last weekend before shipping out for Germany. Billy had been stationed at Fort Ord.

With an evening tea Friday, October 22, Mrs. Shirley Tauschek, Mrs. Alice Horejsi, and Mrs. J. D. Rhoades, members of Chestnut Branch, announced the formation of a new Branch of Children's Hospital in Glenmoor Gardens. The new branch will be called the Carob Branch after the tree common to most Glenmoor residents. Charter members of the new organization in addition to the three listed above, were present at the tea at Mrs. Tauschek's home: Mesdames: Ralph E. Swenson, Frank Siatt, Harold Kvarnstrom, Jack Brooks, James R. Meyer, H. Tappan Ludeman, and Joe Meadows. The new Branch membership will be limited to 20.

Visiting the Gordon Millers on Sterling Drive last week were Mr. Miller's brother, Mr. Larry Miller, and his wife. The visitors had just arrived from New York where Mr. Miller was serving in the Navy. He will attend San Jose State beginning in January.

A guest from New Jersey, Mr. Sheldon Schiller, joined the group at a barbecue on Thursday October 14.

The Gonders', who are leaving the area the first week in November, went next door on Norris Road to pay the Sayous' a quiet visit last Saturday night. By prearranged plan the following eight couples, friends and neighbors, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Groom: Joe Meadows, Ralph Donahue, Ronald Griffith, Bill Wooton, Gordon Miller, H. T. Ludemann, R. L. Howard and the Dick Norths. At the signal they all converged on the Sayous' home.

Guests of the Jack Allens of Glenmoor Drive, last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Blanks of San Lorenzo.

Last Saturday Miss Gladys Rose, 441 Sterling Drive, returned home from a week-long stay at Alameda hospital. She will be convalescing at home for a month to six weeks.

Mrs. Robert Willard, Sterling Drive, held a luncheon last week at which the following guests were present: Mesdames Peter Traccoli, and Charles Johnston from Niles; Harry Rose, Irvington; Al Dadian, Palo Alto; Harley Ratto and Anthony Rivers, Centerville; Ed Kettman, Ralph Brown, Newark; Victor Traccoli, Oakland; Paul Traccoli, Livermore, and Harry Kvarnstrom and James Estep, Glenmoor.

Little Reggie Brunner, 17-month-old son of the Rex Brunners, Glenmoor Court, is on his feet again after a two-week bout of illness.

Mrs. John Ruano, Elliot Street, spent the better part of last week in bed. She is up and around again.

Mrs. Elvira Enos, Norris Road, honored her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Benicasa, on their fifth wedding anniversary by a surprise shower of shrubs and plants brought by old friends and neighbors. The event was held at the latter's Niles home, Thursday, October 21.

A costume party to celebrate Halloween will be held at the Ben Alward home on Blacow Road, October 30. Ten little children in the block have been invited. Mrs. Vernon Mattson and Mrs. Charles Green will share the work and fun with Mrs. Alward.

The Glenmoor Bridge Club held its bi-weekly meeting yesterday at the Siatt home, Sterling Court. At the Wootton home two weeks before, Mrs. F. P. Siatt won first prize and a substitute for Alice Horejsi, Doris Howard, Mattos Drive, placed second.

Birthdays in the wind: Karen Carlson, Elliot St. celebrated her fourth October 9 by a visit to Fairyland with her daddy. Most prized gift: roller skates.

Helping Jimmy Park become a full-fledged six-year-old at his home on Rogers Ave. last Saturday were nine of his friends from Glenmoor and neighboring towns: Doug Clark, Scott Sinclair, Jimmy Burrous and Patrick Diamond from Glenmoor, Jimmy Temple, Richard Gillaspy, and Naida Gilfinlen from San Leandro, and Linda Hall and Denny Hall from Redwood City.

Jimmy Johnston, Glenmoor Drive, was honored by a birthday party Sunday, October 17. He was eight years old and had nine guests for lunch and a movie party: Bobby Fritch, George La Far, Teddy Ebbage, Roger Salover, Kenny Salover, Michael Norris, Wayne Amaral and Doug Browne, all of Glenmoor and Richard Mohr of Oakland.

Barbara Ruano of Elliot Street officially became eleven years old October 14 with a dinner party. Guests included her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Newman of Hayward and a friend, Laurie Porges. Barbara was most thrilled with a bracelet which was set with moonstones and was a gift from her grandparents. A wristwatch from her mother and father made her very happy also.

Sunday, October 17, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Siatt and son Jimmy, age 12, celebrated their twenty-first anniversary by taking in both Cinerama and "A Star Is Born" as well as dinner out.

New residents: Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Hall (Pauline) are now occupying their new home at 229 Elliot. The Halls are from Hayward. Mr. Hall works at the American Pipe Construction Company. And they have a cat.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Polumbo (Lenore) moved from Oakland to their new address, 241 Blacow Road, last week. They have one child, five-year-old Belinda. Mr. Polumbo is an hardware floor man for Glenmoor Garden Homes.

Dr. Leon Shoemaker (Pat) moved into the tract the weekend of October 10 with the Boxer pup. The Shoemakers are from Newark. Dr. Shoemaker, a dentist, has his office at Fremont and Martha.

Put New Freshness Into Your Complexion

Why are some complexions poor, some just average and others always aglow with extra freshness that simply radiates good health and vitality? What is the factor that makes the difference? Scientists find that it is often RIBOFLAVIN, part of the Vitamin B complex that is so important to skin health.

This natural beauty aid is abundant in milk, which offers a source of riboflavin that is both delicious and the most economical available. Three glasses of milk a day will add new freshness to your complexion just as it has for so many others. Milk makes the difference!

It's Prosperity Insurance!

Proposition 5 renews a 40-year old law exempting home-owned ships from personal property tax levies that can't be assessed against foreign and out-of-State ships.

California ships could not compete, tax-wise, without this protection, and in many cases would be forced to seek registry in other ports, spending there the many millions of dollars for repairs and provisioning now spent in California.

A healthy shipping industry is vital to California's prosperity. Shipping furnished jobs for 20,000 Californians last year with a payroll of more than 100 million dollars! Every county in every section of the State benefits in terms of wider markets and better prices for products, more business volume, more stability, more job protection.

Everybody favors Proposition 5: the Democratic Party and the Republican Party, the Farm Bureau Federation, the State Federation of Labor, the State Chamber of Commerce, the California Federation of Women's Clubs and scores of other civic, labor, business, women's and patriotic organizations.

Determined a newspaper of general circulation by decree of Department 1, of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, on October 1, 1954.
Entered at the Post Office at Centerville, Alameda County, California, as Second Class Matter. Subscription Rate, in advance, $3.00 per year.

ALL IN THE POINT OF VIEW?

They say it's difference of opinion that makes horse-races. Sometimes it drives newspaper readers to television, as we shall proceed to illustrate.

Centerville residents fought for years to get protective zoning for their town. Finally, after much backing and filling, the Supervisors decided to give it to them on September 21. Folks here sat back and waited to see what it was going to look like. A large black-and-white zoning map was supposed to be published to make it legal and show landowners what type of zoning their property lay in.

Several weeks passed. One day a friend came to this newspaper with a copy of the zoning map. It had been published October 5, outside the Township, in a paper printed miles away in Hayward. Practically nobody here saw it.

Now the NEWS-REGISTER had been intimately concerned with zoning, as it is intimately concerned with anything that affects the welfare of our Township, a place where we live and make our living. Of course since the County pays regular advertising rates for printing maps in our paper, this affects our making a living too. But as we have often told County officials, we believe this is secondary. The main issue is seeing that Township residents are informed to the fullest possible extent of what is being done to them from Oakland. We believe that the fullest information comes from the paper that is published here and which goes into most local homes.

Therefore the editor of the NEWS-REGISTER, acting both as a newspaperman and a citizen, last week appealed to the Chamber of Commerce in Centerville to ask why the map was virtually hidden from public view. The chamber, having had similar experiences in the past, obliged.

The Oakland Tribune noted this fact, and also noted that at an overflow meeting of the chamber, with more than 30 present, only two members could recall having seen the map.

The Hayward paper treated the incident with lofty amusement, and wrote it off as Centerville Chamber members agreeing "to boost the business of a fellow-member." It excused the Supervisors' action by remarking, in parenthesis, that "the (Hayward) newspaper is widely circulated here."

There are degrees of width, as Mercutio remarked when he was dying of a stab wound. Two out of 32 or 33 hardly seems wide to us. And the implication that the NEWS-REGISTER was acting only from a fear of losing business, and that the Centerville Chamber went along only to accomodate a pal is a deliberate underestimation of the motives of a progressive and proud community and its newspaper.

COUNTY PROPOSALS MERIT 'YES' VOTE

Three civil service amendments affecting Alameda County government are on next Tuesday's ballot. They are entitled County Measures A, B, and C, and they deserve the voters' attention.

Amendment A would permit the Civil Service Commission to reclassify county employes, and to set up standards for their work, upon ratification by the Supervisors. Amendment B would allow the commission and Supervisors to extend probationary periods for new employes longer than the present six months, giving a longer time during which unsatisfactory persons could be dismissed without lengthy trials and appeals. Finally, Amendment C makes it the duty of the Civil Service Commission to review civil service salaries once a year and to recommend adjustments to the Supervisors.

The amendments have the effect of making civil service here more modern and flexible, and of introducing into it more elements of the desirable merit system of personnel administration.

All three have the endorsement of the County Employes Association, the Taxpayers Association, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and the league of Women Voters, as well as of Supervisors Stanley, Pursel and Janssen. A "yes" vote is therefore recommended on all three.

THE HOSPITAL DIRECTORS

Washington Township's Hospital District will elect three directors at the November 2 general balloting. This is the only election that bears directly on local affairs, and it is an important one.

Three incumbent directors are seeking re-election. Their service has been long and faithful, and their plans are just now coming into full flower. A contract for the Township's community hospital it to be let a few weeks after the election.

Two men have filed against the incumbents. While their sincerity cannot be questioned, the fact remains that their experience cannot compare to that of directors who have worked so long and so carefully to bring this region its much-needed hospital. In the process, the incumbents have absorbed a vast amount of knowledge, doubly valuable in the first critical years of a hospital's operation.

The three incumbents moreover are in tune with the delicate problems that hedge around a hospital, its workings with the medical profession, and its relationship with the community. Thus far they have been able to steer a course that has kept the hospital free from the discord and strife which so unfortunately characterizes neighboring institutions of similar type.

The three directors who seek re-election do so without thought of reward—in fact none of them received or will receive a penny for their work. In gratitude for this work it would be a pity if Township voters did not give L. S. Whitaker, Sam G. Scott and Allan E. Walton the courtesy of a "yes" mark beside their names.

When buying new dishes take your husand along, so he can check to see if the coffee cups have decent-sized handles.

At least one first grade teacher I know now watches children's television programs, so she'll know what her class is chattering aobut.

Troubled with aprons getting torn by catching on cupboard doors? Remove the ties and place the apron on one of those plastic hoops, and it'll pull off when caught, not tear.

That's a mighty clever idea an Orchard Park housewife showed me. All year she saves small boxes, then puts Christmas paper on them for gift giving.

And then there's the little Newark girl who remarked when a friend went to the doctor for a broken arm; "Why'd he go to the doctor, he isn't sick?"

A Niles grandmother says too many parents are only too glad to take their children to Sunday School, but never stay for church. How about YOU?

When his five-year old, son received birthday skates, a Centerville father tried them out first, and made it to the corner and back without mishap. More than I could do!

After dieting more than a year to attain a slim figure, an Irvington woman says she won't try to lose more even, to suit M. Dior. Besides, her husband won't let her buy any more dresses, in case she gains.

It certainly is easy to see when some folks are angry. I knew at a glance when a neighbor was on her way to settle a so-called "insult" to her child. She stamped and created lightning bolts.

It would'nt be necessary to move the Irvington sign to make it more noticeable. Just wash off the dust and repaint it.

Mothers, don't let your young fry go out alone Sunday night. It will be fun for you, and safer for them, if you go along, too.

A Newark tract-dweller says she is going to ask her trick-or-treat visitors where they live, since last year many "visited" from as far away as Centerville.

Notice while your children do pumpkin carving they usually mirror on their faces the frown or smile they are putting on their jack-o-lantern?

Why do people continue to dump refuse along some parts of Baine Avenue when it's only a little farther to the dump?

I always enjoy passing a field where celery is being cut, it smells so nice.

Though fashion magazines say we'll be wearing longer feminine hair-dos, girls still keep getting those boyish cuts.

When he arrived in Mission San Jose after a long trip, one four-year-old exclaimed over his "new" toys. He hadn't seen them for months.

I had to laugh at the Glenmoor man who remarked he couldn't do much for the Boy Scouts, he was lucky if he could start a fire by rubbing two matches together.

A Niles woman says she's worn the same dress to parties she's sure the dress would go alone, if if she couldn't make it.

This is the week when kids start their prayers: ". . . Halloween be Thy name."

Happiest man in the Township is Herman Medeiros, veteran bus driver for the Mission San Jose School. Herman last week got a new 60-passenger bus. No speck of dust settles on that canary-colored bus. Only trouble is, it's so big, he can't fit it into the old garage, and it has to spend nights outdoors.

Hear Ann Mayock finally sold Los Amigos Vineyards, and expects to go South and live. A definite loss, both Mrs. Mayock and the vineyard. Folks who know her say her sherries and cabernets were among the best — if not THE best — in California. (Sip it, darn it, don't swill it.)

One for the book: Maurice Marks introduced Rev. C. W. Kirkpatrick at Rotary Club last week as "the only man who ever rode both ways with Ben Murphy."

* * *

Joe Dooley, 345 School St., Niles, shot the biggest deer YOU ever saw up in Nevada the other day. One antler had 11 points and the other had 13. Joe is having it mounted, and he stands to win some sort of prize for bringing back the most spines or horns, or whatever it is, in this part of the world.

* * *

I always called it "Klawata" and spelled it that way in the paper until last week when Marian Souza of Niles, who ranks as Pocahontas of this ladies' club, informed me it's supposed to be "KLATAWA." She was real nice about it, too. Do you ever get things started backward? I used to call interurban railways "Interburban."

* * *

Newspaper guys get a little fun now and then, for free. Last Friday the Lincoln-Mercury people held a preview of their new models at the Fairmont, and I was very happy to represent the Township, since such critters don't have a home corral here.

* * *

I am pleased to report that the new cars are lulus, but that I'll be driving that '53 business coupe for some time yet. The Merc I liked was something called a Montclair, which is supposed to be classified information, according to a herd of guards who kept the unwashed at a distance.

* * *

Long, low and expensive-looking the Merc succumbs gracefully to the wraparound windshield this year. "No girl will be safe in that buggy." I predicted, flushed with prawns, to Benson Ford, Lincoln-Mercury chief, who was out here from Detroit for the showing. Benson smiled a wraparound smile. It didn't come off even while he was picking up the tab for about 1200 luncheons. It's only money, I guess.

* * *

Rumor hath it that the biggest contribution in the recent Lions White Cane drive came from children at Centerville School—$200. That's what we call real support.

* * *

Vernon Ellsworth is due home today from Las Vegas. Half the organizations in the Township had to skip their minutes this week—Vernon is our foremost secretary.

Editor, Sir:

We wish to thank you for the fine recognition and publicity which your paper gave our Fatima Day.

To have been able to reach the large number of people who did attend was in great measure due to this kindness.

With sincerest appreciation, we remain,

Our daughter's pet Sealyham, Ragsy, was killed near the International Kitchen last Wednesday by a driver who went by at a terribly fast clip. He didn't stop.

If these drivers knew how much unhappiness they caused by thoughtlessness, maybe they would at least stop and apologize, and try to help a helpless animal in pain.

Editor, Sir:

A great deal of confusion and delay in last Tuesday's High School election could haven been avoided had the voters brought to the polls the card they had received from the County Clerk's office with their name, address and Precinct Number.

Then if their names had been removed from the register or misplaced they could be sworn in and voted immediately.

It is especially important that you bring your card to local elections where ten or twelve precincts are grouped together.
